Our Clients

As family wealth mentors, we work with individuals of all ages and counsel them through their wealth choices and transitions. Through offering consistent guidance over the years - helping our clients become financially mature and prepared for whatever lies ahead - we are present at critical moments such as:

- Times of inheritance
- Positioning for a career
- Marrying/divorcing, especially if the other has more or less wealth
- Death of a parent or spouse with ensuing estate implications

The following pages describe the work we do for our clients as wealth mentors and when our services are needed specifically to help our clients talk about money or strategize their philanthropy.
