Our Team

As appropriate, Diana brings together a team of experts under the auspices of The Chambers Group to meet the specific needs of each client and complement the skills and experience in the client's advisory team. The Chambers Group's professional associates include:

Eleanor Blayney, MBA, CFP

President

Direction$, LLC

www.women-ask-for-directions.com

Eleanor has almost twenty years experience as a managing director of a successful firm of financial planners where she specialized in the areas of portfolio management and estate planning. Eleanor now develops and delivers financial planning curriculum to circles of women wanting to take charge of their financial lives. She consults with financial services companies and provides training on practice management.

Lynne Hornyak, Ph.D., PCC

Principal

LMH Services

www.LMHServices.com

Lynne brings over twenty-five years experience as a professional coach, psychologist and educator. Specializing in the psychology of money, her Intentional Investing™ approach provides a complementary dimension to The Chambers Group offerings. Through LMH Services, which specializes in leadership development, The Chambers Group has access to tailored executive and personal assessment and coaching services.

Michael Seltzer

Philanthropic Advisor

Michael is a leading strategist and advisor on creative and innovative grantmaking strategies and a recognized authority on charitable giving worldwide. He is the author of Securing Your Organization's Future, writes a regular column on Philantopic, the Foundation Center blog, and has lectured at forums in the U.S., Europe, Asia and Africa. Most recently, he served as President of the New York Regional Association of Grantmakers, an association of more than 270 private, public and corporate funders.
